[TEXT OF THE CURSOR.]

PRAYER TO OUR LADY[1] ... ... ... ... ... ... ... 1366

THE SORROWS OF MARY ... ... ... ... ... ... ... 1368

APOSTROPHE TO SAINT JOHN ... ... ... ... ... ... 1412

THE STORY OF ELSEY, AND THE FESTIVAL OF THE CONCEPTION ... 1416

[SEVEN ADDITIONS.[2]]

1. AN EXPOSITION OF THE APOSTLE'S CREED (4 MSS: Cot., Fa., Göt., Ed.) 1430
2. THE LORD'S PRAYER AND ITS EXPOSITION (4 MSS: Cotton (Vespasian A iii), Fairfax, Göttingen, Cotton Galba E ix) ... ... 1436
3. PRAYER TO THE TRINITY (3 MSS: Cotton, Fairfax, Göttingen) ... 1454
4. PRAYER FOR THE HOURS OF THE PASSION (3 MSS: Cot., Fa., Göt.) 1458
5. SONG OF THE FIVE JOYS OF OUR LADY (in Göttingen MS only) ... 1468
6. THE BOKE OF PENANCE[3]

Prologue. On God's mercy to man; and letting him rise from Sin, by Penance ... ... ... ... ... ... ... 1470

Part I. Penitence and its 1st Requisite: Ruth, Forthirking, or Contrition, p. 1481 ... ... ... ... 1480

Part II. Its 2nd Requisite: Shrift or Confession (and herein of 1484
The 15 Points of True Shrift, p. 1491—1509.
The 4 things drawing us from Repentance, p. 1509-13.
The office of the Priest, p. 1514.
The Seven Deadly Sins, p. 1524.
How to confess Sins to a Priest (in Cot. Vesp. A 3 only), p. 1551.
Venial Sins, p. 1558.)

[1] The Trinity and Laud MSS. both stop at the end of the 7th Age of the World, p. 1365, l. 23898. The next 4 subjects, from the Prayer to our Lady, to the Conception, p. 1366—1429, are printed from the Cotton (Vespasian A iii), Fairfax, Göttingen, and Edinburgh MSS. In Cotton Galba E ix, are only some of the 'Additions'—Lord's Prayer, 7 Deadly Sins, Cursing—copied as separate treatises.

[2] The Conception of Our Lady is the last subject intended by the author in the Prologue. See p. 21.

PAGE

Part III. Its 3rd Requisite: Mends-making or Satisfaction (by Prayer and Fasting, p. 1560; Alms-doing (in 9 points), p. 1567; Subduing the Flesh, p. 1570; Watching, p. 1574.) 1560

Supplement: On Absolution by the Pope, p. 1577; the 15 Points of Cursing, p. 1578; Absolution by a Bishop (Cott. Vespasian A 3, and Fairfax) or a Priest (Cott. Galba E 9), p. 1581; Communion with the Cursed, p. 1583; Cursing, p. 1584. 1577

Sal wend vntil his fadiris cite.
Þe nam of þat cite to neuin,
It es þe kingerik of heuin,
Vnto þat blis to leng him wit,
Þat euir es ful of grace and grit.
Of gladnes al þan es þar glew,
And þat es euir elik new,
Þair blis it sal be sa perfite,
Þat þain sal wit naþing of site,
Of al site be quit and care,
Ful wel es him mai won þar.
Nan eye mai se, ne er mai her,
Ne hert mai þink þa ioies ser,
at iesu crist haf diht til his,
Þa wiirdid er vnto þat blis.
Þa seli þat sal leng in heuin,
In bodi sal haf giftis seuin,
And vij in sawel, al for þair medis,
Þat sal be faurten blicedhedis.
In bodi, swecnes and fairhed,
Fredom and strenket ai life to led,
Liking ai wit lastand hel;
Þe sawel als hauis als fel,
Sal haf wisdom and strensip,
Concord, poste, and worsip,
Sikernes, and ioiful ro;
Hu þir mai be I sal vndo.
In swetnes þou sal be sa swift,
Þat als swiþe sum þou mai lift
Þin eye vp þe lift to se,
Als swiþe þar sal-tou be;

And swiþe als swn mai fest
Fra þe est him bem vnto þe est,
Als swiþe mai þou com þider,

Mar þan þaim-selwin lof þair driht,
Þangels taim als taim seluin riht.
Mikel it es þar þair concord,
For al es euir at an acord,
Þai er sa selcuþe þan inttale,
Als an wil al þai wil al hal
Þat quiderward þat an wil loke,
Al lokes þidir, als sais þe bok,
Þat an wil, al wil alse son,
And god and angel wil be don,
"Ful godȝer-hail," cod þu, "mai falle,
If þai wald als I sa wald alle."

Þu sais quen þou vmþinkes te,
Þat tu wald lik saint petir be,
Yf þou wald þat þou sal be tite,
Ne sal þar be þar-to na lite;
Like to petir self I sai,
Bot to be Petir þan sai I nai,
For if þu gernid be petir self,
Þan gernid þu be noht þe self;
For if þou þi being wald noht be,
Noht wald þu war mad of þe.
Bot þar es nan þat gernis mar
Þan þai, in seruis worþi war,
Bot in þat mekil stabelnes,
Sal na gern be bot þat he es.
If þai gernid be swilk i-wis,
Þan war þai noht in fulli blis,
Bot þar blis þat þar wonand is
Es mirthis nan it mai of mis.
Ilk man sal haf til his,
Al þat he wil eftir wis.
Mikel sal it be þair miht,
Þat in þat welþe sal be sa wiht,
Sa mihtilik þair miht to fille,
Þat if it sette þaim to wille
To mak anoþer erþe and heuin, [Leaf 8, col. 1]
Þai moht it mak als tou mai neuin.
For þai airis al wit crist,
Þai þat ar stad in his biwist,
Als good es er þai goddis airis,
Heuin and erþe al es þairis.
"Quin mak þai þan, if sa þai mw,
Anoþir heuin and erþe?" cod þow.
Bleþeli sir, sai þe I salle,
Forþi þat god hauis wrohtin al,
Of his werkes es noht vnbale,
Bot al in mette and weiht and tale;

For if þai anoþir heuin wroht,
Vnnait it war and al for noht.
Mani þingis mai we do,
þat for to do war litel fro,
Als for to stop and for to rin,
Quen it war bettir for to blin;
Quarto suld we forþer strife,
þan for to lif in saintis lif?
Of rihtwis al þe sach es sliik,
þat tai sal be til angels lik,
And noht forþi þoh þai be al
In an anlepi faderis halle, þai sal in woning stedi sere,
Ilkan haf his lai plener.
Of þair worsip quat mai we men,
þat crist him kiþis to þa clen!
Angels sal taim mensken der,
And saintis als þoh þai godis wer,
Worsip þat god þaim had fordiht,
þai graiþid þaim wit med and miht.
Heuin and erþe al creature
Sal ber þaim worsip and honure,
For sun and mon, and water and stern,
þat rinnes now wit ras sa yerin,
Into bettir statte to stand,
Fra þan na langir beþe stirand.
þar-for sal tai þam worsip ber,
þat als mikel als in þaim wer,
Wit þair worsip al tai moht best,
For to bring þaim into rest.
Of þair sikernes to sai,
Certes es tar na noþir wai,
For of þe welþe þat þai er in
Es naþing þat mai þaim tuin,
Ne na mistid mai þaim bitid,
For þai er traist on ilka side;

[leaf 8, col. 2]

þat god hauis giuin þaim to mede,
To time þai wate it es na dred.
þair ioy, þair gladschip, qua kan tel?
Na man forsoþe in fleis and fel;
For to bihald þat trinite,
Hu he is afald god in þre,
Face wit face þat god to se,
þat euir was and ai sal be,
þai sal haf joi witin and oute,
And on euir ilka side aboute,
Ouir and vndir and ai-quar;
Vr lauerd vs gif vr woning þar!
þir er þe blis and mani elles,
God gifes to þaim þat wit him dwelles.

Hic incipit assumpcio beate Marie.

IN honorance of iesu cryst 1
Sitteþ stille and haueþ lyst,
And ȝif ȝe wille to me here,
Off oure ladi ȝe mai lere,
Floure of heuene, ladi and quene, 5
As sche auȝt wel to bene,
To wham aungeles doun here myȝt
To serue hure boþe day & nyȝt.
Parauenture ȝe haue noȝt iherde 9
How oure ladi went out of þe werde;
Sitteþ stille and herkeneþ to me,
Now iesu cryst oure helpe be! 12
¶ Whan iesu crist was doun on þe rode,
And þolede deþ for oure goode, 20066
He callide to hym seynt Iohan
That was his fleschli kynnes man,
His moder swete he dide also,—
He callid no men mo him to,— 18
And seide, "womman, lo! here þi sone,
And man take hure to moder in good
[2]And þenkeþ on my sorwe nowe, [wone,
How I hange here abowe,[2] [2 These two lines not in text.]
How I hange apoun a tre, 20073
Ful sore I wote hit reweþ þee.
[3]Myn feet, myn hondes of blode ben rede,
With-owte gilt I þole dede, [3 leaf 62, back]
But þei haue wille to louen me
For wham I hange on þis tree, 28
The Iewis me deden mychel schame,
Ther-of hadde I neuer blame." 20080
MArie his moder sore dide wepe,
The teeres fellen at hure fete,
Nas no wondre þouȝ sche wepe sore
Of sorwe wist sche neuer more. 34
When he þat of hure flesche nam
For his holi swete nam 20086
Honge þer nailed to a tre,
"Alas! my sone," þo saide sche, 38
"How mai I lyue, how mai I bene,
How mai I þis sorwe ysene! 20090
Neuer ere wist I of sorwe nouȝt,
Leue sone what hauest þou þouȝt,
How schal I leue without þee? 43
Leue sone what saist þou to me."
Iesu spak þo wordes goode
As he henge on þe rode, 20096

B. M. ADDITIONAL

B. M. ADDITIONAL

[1 The latter part of this poem considerably differs from the version as given in the text, introducing new and fuller incidents. The above preamble also, of 12 lines, quite differs from that of 54 lines in the text.]

And seide to his moder dere, 47
"I schal þee take a trewe fere
That trewly schal kepen þee, [leaf 63]
While in erþe þou schalt be." 20100
Than seide Iesu to seynt Iohan,
"For my loue kepe wel þis womman,
Kepe hure wel with al þi myȝt 53
That no man do hure vnryȝt."
¶ þan nam þe apostel seynt Iohan
On his kepynge þis womman, 20106
He kept hure wel with al his myȝt
That no man do hure none vnriȝt.[1] 58
To þe temple he hure nam, [1 MS. has viryȝt]
And also sone as he þer cam
God to serue he hure dede
Amonge þe nunnes in þat stede; 62
Ther sche bileft al hure lyfe,
Ne loued sche noþer fiȝt ne stryf.
¶ The ladies þat þer-inne weren 20115
Ful wel þei ne myȝt hure forberen,
For euer þe while sche was pore 67
Sche wolde serue, las & more.
Seke & hole sche dide gode, 20119
And seruede hem to hande and fote,
Naked & hungry sche cloþed & fedde,
Colde & seke sche brouȝt to bedde,
Ne was þer noþer seke ne fere [leaf 63, bk]
That þei nadde to hure mystere. 74
Thei louede hure wel with al here myȝt,
Sche it serued & þat was ryȝt. 20126
Sche woke more þan sche slepe,
Hure sone to serue was al hure kepe,
To hym sche callid with rewful steuene,
And he hure sent an angel fro heuene,
To glade hure hym-self he cam 81
That of hure bodi flesche nam. 20132

Seynt Ion hure keper was hure dere,
And to hure was a trewe fere, 84
Ne wolde he neuer fro hure gone,
Al þat sche wolde he wolde done;
While sche was in þat stede 20137
Al þat sche wolde he hure dede.
When sche hadde þer longe ben, 89
That faire ladi, heuene quen,
Than wolde hure sone sche com him to,
When he wolde hit was do. 20142
He sent to hure an angel of heuene,
That gret hure with myry steuene, 94
Ther sche was & bad hure bede
Lyȝth an angel in þat stede,
And seide, "ladi! ful of grace, [leaf 64]
Blessed be þou in eche place! 98
Be nouȝt adrad þouȝ I be here,
I am þi sones massagere, 20150
Fro hym I am to þee come,
He gret þee wel, þi dere sone,
Floure of erþe, heuene quene, 103
Blessed mote þou euer bene,
Wel be þat tyme þat þou was born.
For al þis worlde hit was forlorn
ȝif þou ne were, & þe fruyt of þee,
Marie ladi, wel þee be. 108
Ladi! best of al þinge,
Bliþe tiþynges I þee brynge, 20160
Thou take þis palme þat I brynge þee,
Thi dere sone haþ sent it þee;
The þynkeþ longe him to see, 113
Therfore most I no lengere be,
He schal sende after þee 20165
Of heuene ferde moche plente,
And brynge þee in to his blisse
That euer was & now is; 118

B. M. ADDITIONAL

þer he is kyng, þou schalt be quene,
Al heuen-ryche bliþe schal bene; 120
And alle him þenkeþ swiþe longe [leaf 64, back]
Til þou comest hem amonge." 20172
Than answerede oure ladi, 20175
And seide to þe angel, "belamy,
Art þou my sones massagere 125
That bryngest me þis bodes here?
Haueþ he me sette any day
Aȝens when I me greithe may? 20180
With my frendes & my kynnes men,
And with hem þat I in erþe haue ben,
And hem þat I haue fedde & clad,
And don al þat my sone hem bad."
Tho seide þe angel, "I sei þee, 133
Thou schalt be here but daies þre,
The þridde dai we schal come 20187
Alle ix ordres fram heuen abone,
And fecche þee with myry songe,
For after þee vs þinkeþ longe." 138
To þat aungel seide oure ladi, 20191
"What is þi name þat, standeþ me bi?"
"My name seie I þee nouȝt, 20195
But take þis palme þat I haue brouȝt,
Kepe it wel I bidde þee, 143
Ne lete it neu*er* be fro þee.
Ne mai I no lengere abide here, [leaf 65]
For I am sent a massagere; 20200
I schal to þe apostles sone anone, 147
And seie to hem sundry on & one,
That þei ben here þe þridde dai.
No leng*er*e abide I ne mai." 20204
When he had i seide to heuene he steie,
And marie þer bi-left he,[1] [1 Two lines here omitted.]
Vntil hure chambre sone sche nam,
And also sone as sche þider cam, 154

Sche dide of hure cloþes alle, 155
And wasche hure with wat*er* of wille;
So sone as sche hadde dou*n*, 20213
Newe cloþes sche dide hure apou*n*.
When sche was faire schred & clad,
To iesus cryst a bone sche bad, 160
And seide, "sone, I þanke þee
That þou hast yþouȝt on me;
My sone þat is heuene kynge, 20219
I *prai*e þee of þi blessing.
Sone, for þyn hye name, 165
Schelde my bodi fro pyne & schame,
That þe deuel haue no myȝt
To reyne þee, hit were no ryȝt. 20224
Kepe me sone, now is nede, [leaf 65, back]
That I ne haue of þe deuel no drede,
For with þe wiles þat he can, 171
He begileþ many a man.
Leue sone, ȝeue hym nouȝt
Man-kynde þat þou hast bouȝt. 20230
Mi sone þat art ful of pite,
For man-kynne I *prai*e þee, 176
That þou [sun] forþi holi grace, ȝeue hem boþe myȝt & space, 20234
Hem to amende or þei ben dede,
That þei haue of þe deuel no drede.
Thynke, leue sone, þou hast he*m* wrouȝt
And dere þat þou hast hem bouȝt."[2]
When sche hadde *prai*ed so, [2 Two lines left out here.]
Hure frendes sche callid hure to, 184
Hure sibbe, & hure kynnes men,
With reuful steuene sche spak to he*m*.
An seide, "leue frendes, my sone 187
Wol no lenger þat I here wone,
He wol þat I with hi*m* be; 20247
Wherefore I *prai*e ȝou, p*ur* charite,

B. M. ADDITIONAL

3if I any þinge haue mys-wrou3t, 191
Seieþ me now, for hele 3e nou3t,
I it wole amende with my my3t, [leaf 66]
That my soule haue no vnply3t.
The good þat 3e haue doun me, 20253
My sone, þat was doun on þe tree
Man to bigge fro þe quede, 197
He 3elde it 3ow at 3oure nede,
And brynge 3ow in to his blis
Ther I schal be, & my sone is."
Alle þat weren hure bi. 201
Off suche tiþinges weren sori,
And saide, "ladi, how mai þis be,
How schulle we louen *with*oute þee!
Ladi! þou hast vs serued so, 20263
Alas! how schulle we *par*te a-two.
Swete ladi, what is þi þou3t? 207
Rewe on vs, departe vs nou3t,
In moche sorwe & in myche wo
Schulle we lyue, be þou a-go." 20268
þan answerede oure ladi
To þat folke þat stode hure bi, 212
"Lateþ be 3o*ur* greding, hit helpeþ no3t,
And haueþ blis in 3oure þou3t. 20272
Whiles I am here wakeþ with me,
Hit doþ me good þat I 3ow se. 216
Haueþ no drede in wel, [leaf 66, back]
Of peyne schal I þole no del, 20276
Mi bodi mai no peyne þolen,
For he was þer-of y-boren. 220
He þoled deþ him-self for me,
He honged nailed on þe tree;
Mi sone þat is kyng of heuene
Schal me sende worde wel euene; 20282
Iohan & þe apostles where so þei bene,
Schulle alle come for to sene." 226

As sche so spak to þe mon, 227
Off al þat wist nou3t seynt Ion,
He come to speke with oure ladi,
Ferli him þou3t þat sche was sory,
And seide, "ladi, what is þee,
What is þis folk þat I here se, 232
Seie me ladi, what is þee?" he sede,
For me were leu*er* þat I were dede,
Than I þee se suche semblant make,
For schal I neu*er* suche a ladi take.
Hastou ou3t herde þat I ne can 237
Off me or of any o*þer* man?
Schal I neu*er* haue blis, 20297
Til I wite ladi what þee is."
Oure ladi wept, and Iohan also, [leaf 67]
For trewe loue was bitwene he*m* two.
"Iohan," seide ladi, "what is þee,
For þi sones loue scie þou me." 244
Marie answerde with rewful steuene,
And seide, "me cam bode fram heuene,
Fro my sone a massagere, 20305
He wol no lengere þat I be here.
Wite þou wel, hit rewiþ me 249
That I schal Iohan *par*te fram þee,
For þi loue & þi seruyce, 20309
That þou hast doun on eche wise,
Thou hast me boþe fed & clad; 253
And doun also my sone þee bad,
My sone schal it wel 3elde þee, 20313
I schal him telle when I him se."
Than answerde seynt Iohan,
That was a ful sori man, 258
And seide, "ladi, how mai þis be
That I schal þee no more se! 20318
Mi ioie,[1] my blis, is doun eche del,
Ne schal me neu*er* worþen wel [[1] ioie is in MS.]

Sithen we ben p*ar*ted a two." 263
þo seide oure ladi, "why saistou so?
Wite þou wel, I go be-forn [leaf 67, back]
Thi seruyse schal noȝt be forlorn;
I schal to my sone seie of þee, 20325
That þou with hym & me schal be.
But herestou now my frende Ioñ, 269
When þou sest þat I am gon,
Kepe my bodi þat I ne be binomen
When þe fellon Iewes comen,
Mi bodi for to doun no schame, 20331
For þei hate no þing more þan my name;
Mi sone þei hongen on a tre, 20336
Wel I wote so wolde þei me. 276
I wote wel þei louen me nouȝt,
But þ*er*of be þi most þouȝt,
When I am p*ar*ted Ioh*an*, fram þee,
That þei do my bodi none eneste,
My sone þat woneþ in heuene liȝt 281
Lete hem neu*er* þ*er* to haue myȝt."
"Ladi, sithen hit is so, 20344
That we schal dep*ar*te a-two,
Seie me how long hit is to þan." 285
"For soþe," marie seide to Iohan,
"Bi þis & þe þridde day,
No leng*er* abide I ne may." 20349
When he it herde he was sory, [leaf 68]
He wept & seide, "ladi, mercy! 290
How schal I lyue, how schal I fare,
How schal I blis or ioie haue [mare]?
Furst my lord was brouȝt to dede,
Thorow þe felun iewes rede, 20355
And now my ladi wil me fro! 295
Swete lord! now me is wo.
Wolde my lord I wolde be dede,
For I ne can no bett*er* rede." 298

"Ioh*an*," sche seide, "whi seistou so,
Th aungeles schal þee come to 300
To kepe þee where so þou be,
Erliche & late to gladen þee." 20363
Whiles he spak so to seynt Ion,
Come þe apostles eu*er*ychon
To-gidre, but þei wist nouȝt 305
How þei weren to-gidre brouȝt,
Off op*er*es come ne wist none; 20368
But of hure come bliþe was Ion,
He cust hem alle, so fayn he was,
And seide, "deo gracias, 310
Blessed ie*s*u be þi myȝt,
For it is faire & hit is ryȝt 20373
That þi moder come to þee, [leaf 68, back]
That sche faire welcom be 314
Of þine apostles, þat most þee louen;
I ne wote how þei ben hidre ycomen."
Than seide Petyr to seynt Ion, 20378
"Whi art þou so sory amon?
Whi wepistou, & what is þee? 319
For felaschip telle þou me."
"I schall þee seie," [seid] seynt Ion,
"Whi I am so sory a mon, 20383
But seie me furst for godes lone,
Whi ȝe arn hider icome, 324
And weryn so wide i-sprad,
Seieþ what haþ ȝou hidre ilad?"
Tho seide Petyr a ferli þinge, 20388
"I was fer hens atte my p*re*chinge,
I was so heȝne in anoþer londe, 329
And helde my boke in my honde,
And tauȝt men of my sermoun,
I ne wote how I cam to þis toun." 20393
So seide alle þat weren þere, 20395
"Suche wondre sawe I neu*er* ere." 334

B. M. ADDITIONAL

None of hem ne wist þorw wham, 335
Ne what wai þei þidre cam.
[1]Than seide seynt Ioñ, "for soþe I wys,
I schal 3ow telle what it is, [1 leaf 69]
Comeþ with me in to þis hous, 20394
Oure ladi þer, abideþ vs,
Sche ordeyneþ hure to fare vs fro,
For hure sone hit wolle so. 342
Hure sone haþ sent his messagere,
He wol no lengere þat sche be here,
And hider he haþ 3ow alle ysent 20407
To kepe hure bodi when sche is went.
Bi-fore hure knele 3e alle bi-dene,[1] 20410
And seieþ "ladi, heuene quene, 20429
Off alle wy*mm*en best þee be, 20431
Thi sone vs haueþ sent to þee, [1 Twenty lines omitted here.]
To kepe þee & do þi wille,
Vs þenkeþ wel þat it is skille 352
That heuene & erþe bowe þee to,
For þi sone hit wol so,
Thi sone þat is heuene kynge, 20438
And alle þing haþ in his kepinge." 20437
[2]Than comen þe apostles alle [2 These two lines added here.]
And bi hure bigan to falle[2] 358
Vp ros oure swete ladi 20439
And kist þe apostles bi & bi,
Off here come sche was glad, [leaf 69, back]
Alle þei dide þat sche bad. 362
Sche asked hem how þei come þere?
That sprad so sundry were. 20444
The seide in ful good þou3t,
"Thi sone vs haþ hidre ybrou3t,
To kepe þee & by þee by, 367
Ther-fore we comen to þe, lady."
Ful bliþe sche was of here come, 20449
"Blessed," sche seide, "be my sone,
When it is my sones wille 20453
That I come him to hit is skille.
Mi bodi 3e schal kepe so, 373
That per-to come nou3t my fo,
Kepeþ faire my body
That none do me no vilany. 20458
The Iewis ben ful of felony,
My sone þei slow þorw enuye, 378
The haten no-þing more þan my name,
God late hem neu*er* do me schame.
Ther-fore I *prai*e 3ow, p*ur* charyte,
And for þe loue þat 3e haþ to me,
When I am faren to heuen blis, 383
Wakeþ alle per my body is, 20466
Kepiþ it boþe ny3t and dai, [leaf 70]
That no Iewe stele it awai.
Thei wolde it brenne or do it schame,
But *Ie*su, for þi holi name, 388
Late hem neu*er* per-to haue my3t,
For sikirli hit were vnry3t." 20472
Thei seiden alle soþe I-wys,
"Hit schal be, ladi, as þi wille is."
Whiles oure ladi spak so 393
To þe apostles þat come hure to,
Come an aungel & stode hure bi,
And seide, "wel þee be ladi, 20478
And so be alle þat ben þee bi!
Loke þou be ful redi, 398
þou schalt to heuene, & be made quene,
Ful bliþe mai þine hert bene, [heuene."
Alle schal þee serue þe company of
As soone oure ladi herd þat steuene
That þe aungel seide hure to, 403
Wel ful of Ioie was sche þo, 20486
Sche 3ede to hure bedde & lai,
Abowte þe tyme of myddai. 406

B. M. ADDITIONAL

Iohan & þe apostles weren hure bi,
To kepen hure as oure ladi.
[1] Sche badde Ioñ & þe apostles alle [leaf 70, back]
To kepen hure what so bi-falle.[1]

Sitteþ now stille boþ more & lesse,
And herkeneþ of þe moche blesse,
Off Iesu þer he come so lyȝt,
He dide his moder ful moche riȝt,
As a sone auȝt his moder to done;
He callid þe aungeles euerychone,
And alle þe mayne þat was in heuene,
And seide to hem with mury steuene,
"Commeþ with me to my lemman!
Sche is my moder, hure sone I am,
Off hure I toke flesche & blode,
And sithen I hange on þe rode,
I þat euer was & ay schal ben,
In al þis blisse þat ȝe here sen,
I hadde reuþe on al mankyne,
That alle went to helle pyne.
I made man to serue me, [1 These two lines instead of 18 lines in text.]
And þorw þe appel of a tre
That adam toke & ete it Inne,
To helle he went & al his kynne.
Hit rewid me & for-þouȝt sore,
And I it wolde þole no more,
I lyȝt doun & man bi-cam, [leaf 71]
And of þat maide flesche nam.
Bifore alle oþer I hure ches
And I was born of hure flesches.
Thritti wynter & somme del more
Men to wissen I was pore,
Men dide me moche euelte,
Myn owyn þat ouȝt for to be,
Thei token me & bette me sore,
And atte þe last þei dide wel more.

With-oute gult þei me swongen,
And to a piler þei me bounden,
Nailes þei smyten in my fette,
Off blode myne handes weren rede,
Myn hert þei stongen with a spere,
That sawe alle þat weren þere.
Ther I hange nailed on þe tree,
My modre was wel wo for me,
And also was hure cosin Ion;
I callid hure to me soone anon,
And seide, 'Ioñ, for my lone,
Kepe wel þis wyf, I am hure sone.'
Boþe þei wenten þo fro me,
Al one I hanged on þe tree,
Mi soule fram my bodi I nam, [f 71, bk]
In to þe pyne of helle sone I came.
Alle my frendes þat I þer fonde,
I toke hem oute with my ryȝt honde,
Adam & Eue & many mo,
I dide hem oute of helle go.
When I hadde harwed helle,
And don as I ȝow telle,
And fet adam fro þe quede,
The þridde dai I ros fro dede,
Fram erþe to heuene I cam,
God & man bothe I am.
In heuene & in erthe is my myȝt;
Now I wol forþe in ryȝt,
That my modre be me bi,
This tyme I wol for-þi.
Comeþ with me with mury songe,
And do we hure come vs amonge."
Than cam iesu with his mayne,
Aungeles, archaungeles, moche plente,
In to þe chambre þer sche was Inne,
With ful many of hure kynne.

When þi lord was ytakyn, [leaf 75]
And þou haddest him forsakyn;
Oure mayne þee knewe þat ilke nyȝt,
Bothe bi speche & by syȝt,
And seiden alle, for I stode þee bi,
That þou was of Iesus companye.
Thou seidest with wordes & with þouȝt,
For-soþe þat þou knewe him nouȝt,
Praie þi lord of mochè myȝt,
And his moder þat art so bryȝt,
That he me help at þis stounde,
For I was neuer so harde ybounde!
As I þee helped atte þi nede, ȝelde me Petir now my mede."
Seynt Petir answerde þo
To þe Iewe þat was so wo,
"ȝif þou woldest leue on him
That on þe rode dide þi kyn,
That he is soþefast godes sone,

The Iewe þat henge apoun þe bere
Answerde anone, as ȝe mai here,
"I leue wel, & better I schal done
On iesu crist godes sone,
That Iewes diden on þe rode,
And for vs he schedde his swete blode,
That marie bare in hure lyf,
Clene maiden & clene wyf.
He brynge me, I praie it him,
Oute of þe wo þat I am Inne."
As soone as he hadde seide þis bede,
He was al hole in þat stede,
Off fote of honde he hadde myȝt,
Alle his lymes bi-come ful ryȝt.
He stode vp swiþe anone
Bifore þe Iewes euerechone,
That suche a myracle haþ done
Iesu crist, godes sone,
Of a wilde hounde haþ made a lomb,
To preche his worde in eche a lond.
Seynt Petir, þat holi man, [leaf 76]
The Iew he crystened anone,
He tauȝt him al his bileue,
He wist he was to godes biheue;
He ordeyned him to prest anone,
And bad him soone for to gone
And prechen al of godes sone
In eche alond where he come.
That palm þat Petir helde in his honde,
He toke it him þorw godes sonde,
And bad him godes wordes telle,
Among þe Iewes þat were so felle.
So he spak þe furst day,
That he turned to godes lay
Twenty þousand & sommedel mo
Thorw wordes þat he spak þo. 20764

And dom & pees make hem kis;
þis ward to ende bring schall I So,
And Saue þy folke fro endeles wo."

APPENDIX IV

CATO'S MORALS.

(From the Fairfax MS. 14, leaf 122. The quire or quires containing ch. lxxvj, all chapters lxxvij—lxxxx (ch. 90, the beginning of the Cato), have been cut out. The Table of Contents of this Fairfax Cursor treats the Great and Little Catos as part of that poem. See p. 7 above.)

THERE are at least four early versions of the Disticha de Moribus in our tongue.

I. An Anglo-Saxon version in Cotton MS. Julius A. II.; another copy in Trinity College Library, Cambridge; also a late copy in Cotton Vespasian D. XIV.

II. A translation in English verse accompanies a late copy of the monk Everard's French version in the Vernon MS. (Bodleian Library, just before 1400 A.D.), and Additional MS. 22283 (British Museum). Earlier and better copies of Everard may be seen in Arundel MS. 292, and Lambeth MS. 371. He has been printed by Le Roux de Lincy in Le Livre des Proverbes Français.

III. Another verse translation by Benedict Burgh of the latter part of the fifteenth century. This is repeatedly but wrongly assigned by catalogue writers to John Lydgate. Copies of this version are very common.

IV. The fragmentary version now before us, late 14th century, or early 15th. This is the only copy known to me. To judge from the six-line stanza and the arrangement of the rimes, it seems to be an imitation of Everard's French Cato, mentioned above. A comparison of the text with the Latin original (ed. F. Hauthal, Berlin, 1870) shows it to represent the following distichs in this order:—

III. 3, 4, 5, 7, 6, 9, 8, 10, 11, 12, 13, 17, 19, 20, 21.

IV. 1, 3, 4, 5, 6, 11, 12, 13, 15, 16, 17, 18, 19, 21, 22, 23, 25, 26, 27, 28, 20, 29, 30, 31, 32, 33, 34, 35, 36, 37, 38 (39 torn), 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 45, 46, 48, 49.

Part of the epilogue seems to be taken from Everard's prologue.

All these English versions I copied some years ago, with the intention of editing them for the Early English Text Society; but, at Dr. Dahlmann's wish, I gave them up to him, and we were to do a joint edition of the English and foreign version of the Distichs for the Society. As, however, this edition has been, and must still be delayed, and Mr. Furnivall—mainly for Chaucer purposes—wishes the present version to appear at once, advantage has been taken of its looking, in the Fairfax MS., like part of the Cursor, to add the poem here, though it will be repeated in the Society's full edition of the Cato.
